

This form must be submitted and approved in time to register for the academic term (fall or spring) that immediately follows the term the student placed on probation. Refer to the for dates.

A student must raise their cumulative GPA to 3.0 or higher within one additional semester (fall or spring) for full-time students and two semesters for part-time students (i.e. students taking 5 credits or fewer)

If the student does not submit an acceptable plan in time to enroll for the next academic term (fall or spring), does not satisfy any or all of the course/grade requirements listed or if the cumulative GPA (CGPA) is not at least 3.0 after the probationary period, the student will be dismissed from the Graduate School.
