

You're invited to view the

MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH LUNCH AND LEARN SERIES

PURPOSE

Throughout this 4-part lunch and learn series, professionals will receive tools, resources, and materials focused on Maternal and Child Health (MCH) populations. This series addresses working with diverse populations, overall health of families, trauma-informed approaches, and public health communication.

Available for viewing on ND TRAIN

Register for a free account here:

<https://www.train.org/ND/prompt/register>

Virtual series hosted by:

NDSU PUBLIC HEALTH

NORTH
Dakota Be Legendary.

Health & Human Services

SPEAKERS

Danielle Ginther, MPH

Ramona Danielson, PhD

North Dakota State University, Department of Public Health

TOPICS

Lunch & Learn #1

Cultural Humility in MCH Populations

Lunch & Learn #2

Family: Diverse Structures and the Importance of Fathers

Lunch & Learn #3

ACEs and Trauma-Informed Approaches: Applications in MCH

Lunch & Learn #4

Framing and Public Health Communication

ND TRAIN Link:

https://www.train.org/ND/training_plan/7971

Please follow instructions at the end of each video to complete post-test and CEU/Badge registration. For questions, please contact: ramona.danielson@ndsu.edu

Digital Badging ($15.00 each)

Show colleagues your training achievements. 1 badge per video; complete all 4, and receive a cumulative badge.

Free CEUs available until September 30, 2025 thru ND Board of Social Work, ND Board of Nursing. General contact hours available until September 30, 2026.