Jamie was born August 29, 1978, to Conrad and Vicky Pfleger (Gress). Jamie lived in Mandan, ND and graduated from Mandan High School in 1996. After high school she joined the North Dakota Army National Guard and earned a bachelor's degree in nursing graduating Magna Cum Laude from Sanford School of Nursing in 2002.

Jamie married her soulmate, Cody Fleck, on February 1, 2002. They were the best of friends for 28 years and married for 20 years. God blessed them with three children; Dalton 18, Coco 16, and Brady 12. The kids were Jamie's greatest pride and joy. They will continue her legacy by living their lives to the fullest as that is what Jamie taught them. Dalton says Jamie taught him to be an optimist. To not stress. To know that our struggles are temporary and to trust in the Lord with all your heart. Coco says her mom taught her to live "full send". That means if you do something, you do it full-throttle and with 100% commitment - even if you end up failing. That's the way Jamie lived her life - FULL SEND! Brady shares his mom's passion for hockey. He says he's going to make it to the NHL because that would make his mom so proud.

Jamie was a Registered Nurse for 20 years. She was also an extraordinary entrepreneur and inspiring leader. She started DTN Staffing (Formerly known as Dakota Travel Nurse) in 2007, a C.N.A. class in 2011, and in 2012, Jamie and her sister Bev Unrath started a home healthcare agency - Dakota Home Care.

Jamie loved to spend time with her family and friends. Her favorite activity was watching her children play hockey. She enjoyed riding horse. She enjoyed spending time at their cabin on Lake Sakakawea in the summer and spending time at her dream vacation home in Scottsdale AZ. She loved to travel to tropical paradises like Jamaica, Dominican Republic, Mexico and the Bahamas.

She had a heart of gold. She loved all people and all animals. She rescued countless cats, dogs and horses over the years. She was very kind and generous not only to her family and friends but to anyone she met that needed a helping hand.

She loved to have fun. She loved to sing and dance. She loved playing games including poker, tripoley, and was an especially aggressive pinochle player. She was very competitive at any sport or challenge that was in front of her. Mostly, she enjoyed kicking Cody's butt at anything and everything.

Jamie was many things but above all she was a child of God. She believed in Jesus the son of God, our Lord and Savior. She was an active member of Inspire Family Church. She is now in Heaven.

Jamie was preceded in death by her brother, Shawn; and her parents Conrad and Vicky Pflieger (Gress).

Jamie is survived by her husband, Cody; children Dalton, Coco, and Brady; her dogs Bear and Thunder and her cats Monte, Mimi and Cookie, her horses Hemi and Gus and her pet pig Chewy; sisters Beverly Unrath (Monte) and Chryseis Tokach (Chris) and many aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, and nephews.
