BISON SPOTLIGHT

Shining brightly in our Bison Spotlight this month is Amy Gore, assistant professor of English, a dedicated faculty member whose commitment to excellence is transforming the student experience and leaving a lasting impact on our campus.
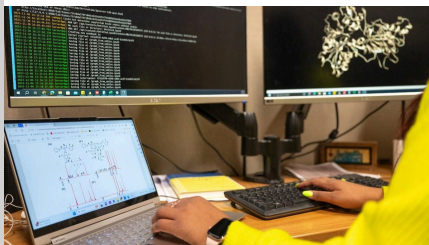

"I love that time spent in the classroom is time spent that I'm learning as well. I get to learn more about the students, learn more about how to be an effective teacher and keep up on brand new research in the topic that I'm teaching." — Amy Gore
