GRADUATE KEY:

A. Architecture differential tuition is assessed on all credits of students admitted to the Architecture and Landscape Architecture programs. Specific to this discipline only, students with both undergraduate and graduate credits in a given semester will have their tuition capped at the graduate tuition rate. Graduate tuition waivers do not apply to undergraduate credits.

B. Business differential tuition is assessed on all credits of students admitted to an academic program overseen by the College of Business. Examples of business majors include: Master of Business Administration (and related certificate programs), Master of Accountancy, Master of Science in Business Analytics (MSBA), Master of Transportation & Urban Systems, and Master of Supply Chain Management (formerly Master of Managerial Logistics). Differential tuition is not charged to the students participating in the Transportation & Logistics PhD program.

C. Engineering differential tuition is assessed on all credits of students admitted to an academic program overseen by the College of Engineering. Examples of engineering majors include: Agriculture & Bio Systems, Civil, Computer, Construction Engineering/Management, Electrical, Environmental, Industrial, and Mechanical/Manufacturing as well as Computer Science.

D. Select graduate programs were approved by ND SBHE on to be billed following an alternative tuition structure, regardless of a student's individual residency. Approved programs are administered strictly via an online delivery. Each student is billed at the ND resident tuition rate, NDSU's thirteen credit tuition cap does not apply, and mandatory student fees are charged.

E. Athletic Training differential tuition is assessed on all credits of students admitted to the Master of Athletic Training (MATrg) program.

Students who have declared multiple majors are billed at a single tuition rate corresponding with the highest programmatic rate of the student. Students enrolled in multiple careers (e.g. both undergraduate and graduate) may be billed separately for each and the tuition cap does not apply across careers.

* All Minnesota rates are per the MN Reciprocity Agreement. Minnesota residents who have not been approved by the state of Minnesota for the Reciprocity rates will be charged the MSEP tuition rate.

 Internship credits and graduate credits offered through the School of Education at participating K-12 schools (Teacher Leadership Academy) are not included in the tuition cap and are billed at the ND resident per-credit rate.
